

the Senate chamber, for the purpose of signing and sealing the laws, until Wednesday next, and concur therein.

The resolution directing one set of the acts of Congress to be furnished by the State Librarian to the Adjutant General, assented to by the House on Wednesday last, the 10th instant, was sent to the Senate for concurrence.

And the several bills and a resolution, passed by the House on Saturday last, were also sent to the Senate for concurrence, the titles whereof are as follow:

An act relating to appeals from magistrates judgments, and directing in what manner a title to real estate may be acquired by sales made under writs of fieri facias, issued by justices of the peace;

An act to establish a public library in each of the several counties of this state, and in the city of Baltimore;

An act to abolish all and every such part of the constitution and form of government of this state, as relates to the appointment and tenure of office of Registers of Wills and Clerks of the several County courts in this state; and

A resolution in favor of the Trustees of the New Market Academy, in Dorchester county.

Mr. Wright, from the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled an act incorporating the Master and Wardens of Union Lodge, number 63, of free and accepted Masons, for the purposes therein mentioned.

Mr. Nicholas, from the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled an act relating to the Baltimore Second Dispensary; and

Mr. Evans, from the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled an act authorising the election of trustees to adjust and settle the affairs of the Elkton Bank.

These three last mentioned bills were severally read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Hunt, from the select committee, to which had been referred the bill from the Senate, entitled an act for the shutting up a part of Lovegrove Alley, in the city of Baltimore, reported verbally, that the committee having considered said bill, were of the opinion it ought to pass without amendment.

The said bill was then read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Harding, from the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled an act to authorize the levy court of Montgomery county, to levy a
